CASCHA HH2010 TRIPLE ROW ENERGY CHIMES

Energy chimes produce a high, energetic sound. Due to its special manufacturing process Cascha Chimes emit a particularly fine sound. You can produce a lasting and pleasant tone with a simple stroke - ideal for meditations, massages, yoga practice or as a signal for starting a lesson. The free-floating metal rods ensure an amazingly long sound duration. Cascha Energy Chimes are held with one hand at the solid wood base while the sound bars are being struck with the supplied plastic mallet. Cascha Energy Chimes consist of three sound bars that are tuned in different pitches.
